Mrs. Atherton Macondray
Seminary P.O.
Alexandria, Virginia

Dear Mrs. Macondray:

Thank you for your letter of the 12th advising us of your 78 acres on Seminary Hill as a possible site for a CIA Headquarters building.

I have turned your letter over to one of my deputies, Mr. L. K. White, who is in charge of our real estate projects, with instructions that his technical people promptly look into the possibilities of the proposed site.

Up to now we are in the planning stage regarding a new building, and no decision has been made in favor of any particular site. Your offer is timely and is welcomed.

Just last night I had a talk with Elena and Herman Phleger, who are very old friends of mine, and they told me of your delightful Virginia property.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
